CALLS CARMACK COWARD

Washington and Boys Give Dramatic Rendition.

TOO REALISTIC FOR ONE.

Son Who Sees an Enemy Advance on Father, He Asserts, and Does Not Kill That Person, Is Not Fit to Be Fed for Worms.

Nashville, March 12.—After speaking for eleven hours and fifteen minutes in behalf of the Coopers and Sharp, General Washington concluded at 11:15 o'clock Friday.

For the third time General Washington described the tragedy. He had the assistance of a messenger. "You are Carmack," he exclaimed. Washington seized an automatic revolver, crouched down with flaming eyes and bristling mustache. The boy now frightened began to back away as he stealthily advanced. Those present laughed and the judge did also. "The son who sees his father's enemy, revolver in hand, and does not kill that enemy as he would a mad dog is not fit to be fed for worms," the attorney declared.

Something distracted Washington's attention and he wandered off into the testimony of a witness who found the empty shell. The boy took advantage of the digression to escape and when the attorney turned around to shoot "Carmack" the latter was missing. "Now let's see where Robin Cooper was." Another boy came in and Washington grabbed him. "You are Robin now," he said. "Carmack sees you. Bang! Bang! Two shots. Why does he not shoot Robin again? Because Robin shot him and he is dead. There is no dispute as to where Robin stood. There is no dispute that Carmack fired directly into Robin's face." The deadly blood thirsty weapon of Carmack was thrust into the boy's face, the face of the boy who supported him and helped him. He fired twice. "Thanks to the thickness of Robin's tie and the stiffness of his collar and thanks to fate, Robin was not to die.

"I want to direct your attention to James C. Bradford. He enters the case the morning of the tragedy at the Maxwell House, when the governor telephoned to him and at once his good offices were apparent in an effort to avert the tragedy. Yet these hungry, starving lawyers for the moment hungry and starving for facts, would have you believe that this splendid lawyer, this Christian gentleman, this savior of an aristocratic old family, suddenly became a raging devil, thirsting for blood and plotting murder."

General Washington read a part of the testimony of John J. Vertrees, concerning his conversation with Judge Bradford, about the note Cooper had written to Carmack. He urged that every line of Vertrees' testimony proved Bradford's one object was to prevent any kind of trouble. "Then he passed on to Adjutant General Tully Brown. 'If you but look back years ago, you can hear the roar of artillery, and see serried lines. Ammunition is exhausted, the fate of the day is at stake; the bearded horse, mounted on a foam-flecked horse, rides madly down the line, his haversack loaded with ammunition, and saves the day for the men in gray. I tell you Brown is as much a hero as Hobson was. Yet they say he lied.'"

Again and again, he declared, Robin Cooper had a right to shoot Carmack like a dog. Again and again, he declared Carmack was a coward; that he hid behind Mrs. Eastman, trying to get his revolver into position for action.

A deputy then brought in some law books and the attorney read decisions on self-defense, overt acts, the mental condition of defendants and other material facts that enter into the case were quoted.

Edie President's Physician.

Washington, March 12.—Major Guy Edie of the United States army medical department, who accompanied President Taft around the world on his now famous tour, is to be the president's family physician, according to a well founded rumor. He will replace Rear Admiral Rixey, who served as physician to Presidents McKinley and Roosevelt.

Railroad Expert Dies.

Washington, March 12.—Jesse N. Smith, auditor of the interstate commerce commission, and railroad expert, died here, aged sixty-two.

STUDY OF TARIFF.

Speedy Passage of Measure to Be Attempted.

Washington, March 12.—Republican senators on the committee on finance will begin a systematic study of the new tariff bill as soon as copies are obtained. They feel the importance of pressing the measure to a speedy determination.

Senator Aldrich, as chairman of the committee, said he would make an effort to have the bill reported as soon as possible after its passage by the house.

"The bill cannot, of course, be officially considered by the committee as a whole, until after it has been passed by the house and transferred to the senate in the usual formal manner. It is believed, however, the house will want a few changes in the bill after it is reported from the ways and means committee.

Republican members of the senate committee on finance feel that they will have in the house bill as good a basis for operations as they will have after that measure has received the consideration of the house itself.

It is expected many changes will be made in the senate and most of them will be suggested by the finance committee.

STANDS BY OFFER.

Promoter McIntosh Will Put Up Fifty Thousand Dollars.

New York, March 12.—Hugh McIntosh, who promoted the world's championship prize fight between Johnson and Burns, in Sydney, arrived on the steamer Mauretania from Liverpool. McIntosh announced before leaving Australia, he had a purse of $50,000 to offer for a fight between Johnson and Jeffries if the two men consent to fight for the world's championship in Australia. McIntosh now says he will be satisfied for the contest to take place in either England, France or Australia, but preferred England.

McIntosh said his sole purpose in coming here was to see Jeffries and try to induce him to take on Johnson. His offer of the $50,000 purse stood, he declared. "I am satisfied Jeffries can be trained and brought into a fit condition for a fight," said McIntosh. "For him to enter the ring with Johnson, without being in the best of condition, however, would be extremely foolish, for Johnson is a wonderful fighter."

Over Three Thousand Feet.

Fredericksburg, March 12.—The Zeppelin airship, which went up from Lake Constance Friday morning attained an altitude of over 3,000 feet, the record height for steerable balloons. Varied and difficult maneuvers carried it to this height with great success.

Bowling Record Broken.

Pittsburg, March 12.—The world's record for two men bowling teams was broken Friday by Al Schwegler, and Teny Schwegler, of Madison, Wis., when they rolled 1,304. The previous record, 1,254, was held by Chalmers and Kline, of Chicago.

Beveridge Undergoes Operation.

Baltimore, March 12.—United States Senator Beveridge of Indiana underwent an operation at Johns Hopkins hospital. While it was a delicate one, the operation was said to be not of a serious character.

Oldest Woman in Iowa Dead.

Des Moines, March 12.—Mrs. Ruth C. Pherson, a noted character of this city, is dead, aged 102 years. She was the oldest person in the state. She was born in Tyson county, Virginia, Aug. 12, 1807.

Cowardly Crime.

Pineville, Ky., March 12.—Robbers, after beating David Smith and wife into insensibility at their home near here, robbed them of $582. They are eighty years old. Mrs. Smith is in a critical condition. Bloodhounds were set on the miscreant's trail.

Burns to Water's Edge.

Queenstown, Md., March 12.—Chesapeake bay steamer Love Point, Captain Clark, belonging to the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway company, burned to the water's edge, while lying at her wharf at Love Point. No lives were lost.

SEVERAL FINALLY PASS.

Both Senate and House Dispose of Many Bills.

Austin, March 12.—The house passed finally the three juvenile court bills. They provide that persons under sixteen years of age charged with a misdemeanor or felony shall be sent to a school for the training of juveniles and transforming the state reformatory at Gatesville into the state juvenile training school.

The house passed finally the bill merging the Wichita Falls lines; also the Texarkana and Corpus Christi charter bills.

On motion of Moberly the house recommended a vote by which a bill creating the office of assistant district attorney was killed and passed it finally.

Strickland and Adams moved to reconsider a vote by which the university was permitted to participate in the Carnegie educational fund for 10 old teachers, recalling riots where laborers were killed by detectives in the employ of the steel magnate, and indicating that Texas was neither indigent nor in need of tainted money. No action was taken.

The house finally passed the anti-traffic bill.

At Friday morning's session the senate passed the following bills: House bill exempting firemen from jury service; house bill allowing corporations to have twenty-one directors; house bill carrying into effect the constitutional amendment granting aid to Confederate veterans; house bill allowing cities of 10,000 to adopt a commission form of government by vote of the people without submitting the matter to the legislature; house bill prohibiting shooting squirrels in Montgomery county for a period of three years; house bill levying $500 occupation tax on dealers in cannon crackers, toy pistols, etc.; house bill requiring trained nurses to obtain a certificate from the State Medical association.

The senate concurred in the house amendments to the bill creating the office of assistant district attorney in counties of 50,000 people; it also concurred in the house amendments to the state training school and juvenile schools bills.

WILL ADVERTISE CITY.

San Antonio Business Men Have So Decided.

San Antonio, March 12.—San Antonio will close a contract with Nelson, Chesman & Co., of St. Louis, to expend $25,000 in advertising San Antonio and the surrounding country. Already $5,000 has been raised and business men of the city are actively soliciting funds to make up the remainder, which will soon be secured.

An enthusiastic session of the Business Men's club was held last night. William Clendennin, of the advertising agency made a convincing talk to citizens and business men, pointing out the fact that while San Antonio is well known in the south and southwest, a large percentage of the people north and east never heard of it. To advertise San Antonio to the whole world is the purpose of the present movement.

Rate War Probable.

Fort Worth, March 12.—An ultimatum demanding that steamship lines entering Texas at Galveston increase their rates will be issued by the Texas railroads, according to an announcement. The result will be a rate war on most shipments coming by water. Railroad men say rate would be ruinous.

Attempts Suicide.

Galveston, March 12.—Joseph McMaster, posing as a minister, held on two charges of statutory crimes, attempted suicide in jail by slashing his throat and wrists. The arteries and jugular veins were avoided. He says his young wife deserted him. His alleged victims were in his rescue home.

Will Demand Referendum Vote.

Tulsa, Okla., March 12.—Oklahoma oil operators will demand a referendum vote on the Yeager strain bill, passed by both houses, and ready for the governor's signature, restricting pipe lines. They declare in its present form the bill will cripple this industry, and is also ruinous to business interests.

War Rumored Broken Out.

City of Mexico, March 12.—It is persistently rumored here that war has broken out between Nicaragua and Salvador and there has been an engagement between the Salvadoran gunboat Presidente and Nicaraguan gunboat Momotombo. The result is unknown.

Watch Found Near Scene.

McKinney, Tex., March 12.—The watch of Miss Winnie Turner, who was knocked unconscious near Rowlett while en route to teach school, was found near the scene. This tends to disprove the theory that her assailant was a negro.

Engineer Killed.

Palestine, Tex., March 12.—The engine of an International and Great Northern railway train turned turtle near Lindale, on the Mineola branch. Engineer Louis Petit was killed. He leaves a widow and child.

SOFT DRINKS DANGEROUS.

Washington, D. C., March 11.—The dangers of the "soft drink habit" and the innocense with which girls become addicted to it were emphasized last night by Dr. H. W. Wiley, the government's pure food expert, in a lecture before 100 girl students of the Holy Cross academy.

"If you only knew what I knew about what these soft drinks contain you would abstain from them," he said.

"It will surprise you to know that most of them contain more caffeine than coffee and a drug which is more deadly. So beware of the soft drink.
It is more harmful than coffee and I advise all young people against the use of this stimulant. Perhaps you would be interested to know that I have collected more than 100 samples of soft drinks sold at fountains and each of these contain caffeine and many of them a deadly drug."

Dr. Wiley asserted that he was fully aware of the army of enemies he had made in trying to protect the public against harmful foods and he added that he was willing to make many more in his efforts to rid the country of deception and fraud in the food products. He declared the man who deceives the public by putting out impure food is as bad as a man who loots the bank vault.

DAVIS IN SPEAKER'S CHAIR.

Representative W. C. Davis has presided over the deliberations of the house part of the time since the investigation of Speaker Kennedy was begun. Of his efficiency as a presiding officer the Austin correspondent of the Galveston News says: "Tonight the order was much better than it has been for several days. Mr.
Davis, in the chair, took hold of things with a firm grip at the opening of the session. He sent all persons not entitled to the privileges of the floor under the rules to the gallery; he enforced the rule requiring members to remain in their seats, and he made the pages and clerks tread lightly and speak softly. The newspaper men sent Mr. Davis a note of thanks."

that it enables a man with a limited

have felt for her who had nourished

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

Iron Fence for Cemetery Ordered. Officers Salaries Fixed for the Next Two Years.

The city council met in regular session at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with Mayor Maloney presiding and all aldermen present.

Minutes read and approved, and bills read in open council and ordered paid.

Alderman Covey for the street committee reported sale of small piece of land to C. Vesmirovsky in the rear of his home for $100, and Mayor and secretary were instructed to make deed.

Alderman Fountain for the Cemetery committee reported that the iron fence for the cemetery had been ordered through J. A. Myers. "The cost of same, including brick base and putting up will amount to something over $800, one half to be paid by the Council and the other by the ladies of the cemetery association.

Officers salaries were fixed for the next two years as follows:

Aldermen, same as now—$3.00 for regular meetings and $2.00 for special meetings.

City Marshal, same as now—$65 per month.

City Secretary, same as now—$75 per month.

A motion was made to add $200 a year to Mayor Maloney's salary, but he declined to accept same after kindly thanking the Council.

All the returns relative to the recent bond election were read and ordered spread upon the minutes.

An ordinance was passed further perfecting the preliminaries relative to the bond issue.

After discussing the question of retiring outstanding bonds at length, the Council adjourned until Monday afternoon.

Received Pretty Compliment.

At the regular monthly meeting of the stewards of the Methodist church a few nights ago, Dr. W. H. Lawrence was the recipient of a pretty compliment from the other members of the board. On account of the fact that he is shortly to remove from Bryan, he tendered his resignation as a member of the board of stewards, which he has served faithfully for a number of years as its secretary. His fellow members had anticipated his action, and as soon as the resignation was read and accepted, he was presented by the board with an elegant gold headed umbrella as a slight token of the high esteem in which they held him, and for his worth as a man and a member of the Methodist church.

The presentation was made by Mr. Ed Hall, chairman of the board, and was responded to by the recipient briefly, but with great depth of feeling.

Dr. Lawrence is preparing to move to Dalhart in the far northwestern part of the state, and his removal will be a great loss to Bryan and is deeply regretted by all.

Death of Mrs. Osie McFarland.

Mrs. Osie McFarland died at the family home at Mumford at 1 o'clock Thursday night. The remains were brought to Bryan yesterday afternoon and conveyed to the home of her uncle, Mr. T. B. Smith, in the country, and will be buried at Reliance today. She was raised in this county near Reliance, being a daughter of Mr. W. N. Smith, and was a niece of Mr. T. B. Smith of Reliance, and Mrs. D. D. Dawson of this city. She leaves a husband and three small children who have the profound sympathy of all in their deep affliction.

Col. Dick White Dead.

Mr. J. B. Dunn of Wheelock, phoned the Eagle last night that he had just learned from Hearne of the death of Col. Dick White at his home in St. Louis on Thursday night. No particulars were given. Col. White was a prominent planter in the bottom near Hearne and divided his time between his plantation and his home in St. Louis. He had been in the bottom since 1874 and was about 75 years of age.

SUNSHINE AND PHILOSOPHY
We seem to be drifting from the day of the rail splitter to that of the hair splitter.

"Mercy me" said Mrs. Golightly to her daughter as they entered the brown stone front of Mrs. Highup.
"What is it mother?" said Gwyn-dolynn.

"I have made a dreadful mistake and worn my work basket instead of my hat, isn't it perfectly dreadful?"
If the size of the hat gave us the name, "Merry Widow," the ones we have now should be the "Hilarious Husbandless."

Mrs. Taft, according to the New York Press, has been awarded the blue ribbon as the champion shopper.
That being the case, she'll make that $75,000 presidential salary look like thirty cents.

A local minister says a Bryan motto is, "Never pay today what you can stand off until tomorrow."

The papers said the Waters-Pierce Oil Company was going to pay that big Texas fine in silver. They seem to be having some trouble in finding a silver mine.

No Jessie dear, "Brally isn't here
this year and Orgain is married."

The president of Harvard comes to Texas to study municipal government, and the senior class of Yale is here studying forestry. Harriman has been camped in Texas for some weeks for his health and W. J. Bryan has bought a winter home at Corpus.
Come ye disconsolate of the earth;
Texas can furnish the Balm of Gil-lead for you all.

A fellow in New York is teaching classes "how to tell a funny story and be quick about it." O, that he could only be induced to come to Bryan.

"Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee," said poor Richard. Paraphrased for Bryan: Let us build up our schools and our schools will build us up.

The east wind of the past few days
is the kind that killed and chilled poor Poe's Annie Belle Lee. It's not surprising that one so delicately named should have withered. It is enough to give Bridget O'Flaherty

the shakes.

"What was your opinion of the

TOLERATED.

Unshaven Person (entering barber shop)—I do not want a hair-singe, shampoo, electric massage, dandruff
cure or head wash.
Barber—Well, what do you want?
U. P.—I want a shave.
Barber—Shave him, Bill. There's no law to prevent these chaps wasting our time.—Puck.

"That boy," said the Bellville farmer, "beats my time! Jest now, when I quoted the scripture to him, he come back at me hard!"
"You don't say so?"

"Shore, I told him to get a hoe an' toller the furrow. 'Thar's gold in the land,' I said, and what do you reckon
he made answer?"

"You tell it."
"Father," he says, "I don't keer fer
the gold of this world; I've laid up treasure in heaaven!" —Atlanta Constitution.

Election Ordinance

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Bryan:

That an election for City Officers, to wit: Marshal, Secretary and three members of the City Council, shall be held by the qualified voters of said City, at the County Court House in Bryan on the first Tuesday in April next, it being the sixth day of said month; and the presiding officer, together with such others as he may appoint, shall hold said election in accordance with the City Charter and Ordinances and the State Law governing elections.

Adopted by the City Council and approved by the Mayor this 4th day of March, 1909.

J. T. MALONEY, Mayor,
J. B. HINES, City Sec'y.

It is reported that the president will appoint Mrs. Carmack, widow of ex-Senator Carmack of Tennessee, postmistress at Columbia, in that state. This would be a graceful act and one that the murdered senator's friends everywhere would appreciate.

WHEEZER OR SNEEZER.

Have You Heard of Hyomei for Catarrh, Asthma and Hay Fever.

If you wheeze or sneeze, hawk or spit, snuffle or blow, something is the matter with the membrane of your respiratory tract, and you need Hyomei.

And you need Hyomei because it will cure you of any catarrhal or inflammatory condition that exists.

It isn't a stomach medicine, or spray, or douche, but a very pleasant, healing, antiseptic balsam, from the eucalyptus forests of Australia. You breathe this balsamic air through a small, hard rubber inhaler, and it reaches every nook, corner and crev-ice of the membrane, and promptly kills the catarrh germs.

E. J. Jenkins will sell you a complete Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) outfit for $1.00, on the moneyback plan.

"The use of Hyomei cured Mr. Cutler of catarrh in 1904. He was strongly endorsed the use of Hyomei in many instances, and we are glad to go on record regarding this marvelous catarrh cure, and endorsing its use."
